Term 4 ~ Week 7 & 8 ~ 2019

End of Year Show/Prizegiving

Every Friday the children have been engaged with Miss Liggett in learning our dance for the end of year 'show' during Prize-giving. As usual, there is a nativity element to our song which the Mikimiki children will be doing this year. The Mikimiki costumes will be provided by the school thanks to the generosity of previous classes. Kōwhai and Mānuka will be a chorus of angels. Costumes must be named and handed in a bag to Miss Liggett by the end of THIS week.

Kōwhai & Mānuka Girls:

White fairy/angel wings, white/silver halo & a glittery fairy-like skirt (any colour) that can be worn over their skirt.

Kōwhai & Mānuka Boys:

White fairy/angel wings, white/silver halo & a piece of tinsel (any colour) that can hang down like in the picture (see right).

End of Year Celebration Songs

Te Kākano is learning 'Oh what a glorious night' for our show. The whole school is learning 'Little Drummer Boy' as our celebration song for the end of prize giving celebration. It would be great if you practised these at home over the next couple of weeks.

2020 Classes - Week 8

Children will be told which class they will be going into and who will be their teacher. In TK, we will start 2020 with 3 kōhanga.

Koru (new entrants) - Miss Kendra Liggett (beginning later in the term)

Mānuka (Year 0/1) - Miss Emily Langridge

Kōwhai (Year 1/2/3) - Mr Mark Smith

Rarahu (Year 2/3) - Mrs Gabby Nuthall

Lost Property

ORION LOWE's sweatshirt has not been returned yet. Please check all school uniform at home that belongs to your family that it has your name on it. We need this back ASAP. Please return anything that doesn't belong to you. Our lost property is overflowing, please check this daily between now and the end of the term. All unclaimed items will be donated to charity once school finishes. If you are missing something, don't forget there is a 'full school' lost property table under the verandah over by the main building.

Living Christianly

This term we are looking at our value of hope and peace, and in particular the Fruits of the Spirit. Each week we will focus on a Fruit of the Spirit, this week is Goodness and Faithfulness is next week.

Transition Mornings - Week 9

Monday 9th December & Tuesday 10th December: Children will be spending the morning from 9:10am-1:00pm with their 2020 kōhanga teachers, in the space that their learning will occur. Please keep an eye out for further information about parent orientation that will occur sometime next week. This time can cause some anxiety around changes. Please be prayerful and proactive in supporting your child during this time.

End of Year Stationery Home

Your children's books that they have been working in this year, will be coming home in week 9. If any of the books are not full or haven't been used, keep them and use them again for next year.

Reminders

- Name all clothes and please provide spare clothes for accidents in a waterproof bag.
